Children Cope With Divorce, Custody, and/or Visitation

Children Cope with Divorce, Custody, and/or Visitation is a court-mandated parent seminar designed to help minimize the negative impact of divorce and changes in custody or visitation on children. The four-hour parent/caregiver training provides information about helping children adjust to the changes associated with the divorce or separation of their parents and other family transitions. You must complete this form even if you already have been given a class date.

Children Cope with Divorce classes are held online. To register and pay online, visit www.FSNWPA.org and click the Events button in the top right corner. Upon registration, you will receive an email with all class materials and a link to access the seminar.

To pay by check or money order, mail the registration form, along with your payment of $100.00 per person, to:
Family Services of NW PA
Attn: Children Cope With Divorce
5100 Peach Street
Erie, PA 16509

Payment must be received 10 days before class. If payment is not received on time, you will automatically be registered for the next available class.
