RE-ENTRY PROGRAM

at Family Services of NW PA

Re-Entry is a support service offered by Family Services of NW PA that helps people who have been incarcerated make a successful transition to community life and reunite with family members.

Re-Entry is available to clients and their families who are involved with the Department of Corrections (DOC) or the Pennsylvania Board of Probation and Parole (PCPP).

Re-Entry Program Goals:

- Address the impact of incarceration on the individual and his or her family.
- Reunify parents with their children.
- Achieve or maintain family safety, stability, independence and unity by providing referrals and coordinating additional support services.

Services May Include:

- Family Group Decision Making (FGDM) conference, which can include clients, families, children, providers or any combination of supports.
- Parenting Support Groups.
- Parent Education Classes.
- Skill Development, including Budgeting, Stress Management, Conflict Resolution, Daily Living, Anger Management, Parenting and Communication.
- Case Management.
- Referral to other social service agencies.
- Assistance in locating adequate housing or improving home conditions necessary to a child's safety.
- Coordination with the Department of Corrections (DOC), the Pennsylvania Board of Probation and Parole (PBPP), and Children & Youth Services.
- Assessment and recommendations using an adult BIO/PSYCHO/SOCIAL.

Program Effectiveness:

Benefits to Program Participants:

- Upon completion of conference, 100% of families will have a plan that outlines bottom line concerns and formal/informal supports.
- 80% of clients who have completed phase I will not have incurred additional criminal charges during services.
- 100% of clients will identify stabilization barriers and be connected to additional resources in the community.
- 80% of clients will successfully complete Parenting Classes.

Referrals:

Referrals can be made by:

- Department of Corrections (DOC)
- PA Board of Probation and Parole (PBPP)
