RE-ENTRY PROGRAM

at Family Services of NW PA

Re-Entry is a support service offered by Family Services of NW PA that helps people who have been incarcerated make a successful transition to community life and reunite with family members.

Re-Entry is available to adults and their families who are preparing for, or who have already transitioned back into the community from incarceration. Clients must be assessed as moderate to high risk to meet eligibility for the program.

Re-Entry Program Goals:

- Address the impact of incarceration on the individual and his or her family and reunify parents with their children.
- Reduce recidivism.
- Achieve or maintain family safety, stability, independence and unity.
- Strengthen communities by improving re-entry outcomes through broadened supports and community engagement.

Services May Include:

- Family Group Decision Making (FGDM) conference, which can include clients, families, children, providers or any combination of supports.
- Parenting Support Groups.
- Parent Education Classes.
- Skill Development, including Budgeting, Stress Management, Conflict Resolution, Daily Living, Anger Management, Parenting and Communication.
- Integrated Case Management.
- Referral to other social service agencies.
- Assistance in locating adequate housing or improving home conditions necessary to a child's safety.
- Coordination with other providers.
- Assessment and recommendations.

Benefits to Program Participants:

- Stability
- Community Support
- Engagement
- Reduced Recidivism

Referrals:

Referrals can be made by:

- Department of Corrections (DOC)
- PA Board of Probation and Parole (PBPP)
- Crawford County Adult Probation
- Mercer County IPP
- Mercer, Venango, & Crawford County Jails
